

FCC:

Do not relax rules that limit the number of newspapers and major television and radio stations that a corporation may own in the same city.